Office Action Summary

Art Unit: 2839

Restriction to one of the following inventions is required under 35 USC 121:

- I. Claims 1-47, 76-87, 89 drawn to a connector system with polarization members and a cam member, 439/157.
- II. Claims 48-75 drawn to a connector with an insert for retaining contacts, 439/752.
- III. Claims 88, 90-106 drawn to a connector with a back shell, 439/610.
- IV. Claims 107-111 and 122-123 drawn to a connector mounting system 439/544.
- V. Claims 112-121 drawn to a modular connector system, 439/701.

Inventions I and (II, III, IV, V) are related as combination and subcombination.

Inventions in this relationship are distinct if it can be shown that (1) the combination as claimed does not require the particulars of the subcombination as claimed for patentability, and (2) that the subcombination has utility by itself or in other combinations (MPEP § 806.05(c)). In the instant case, the combination as claimed does not require the particulars of the subcombination as claimed because the group I combination with polarization and cam means does not require the group II insert, the group III back shell, the group IV mounting means or the group V insert. The subcombination has separate utility such as each of groups II, III, IV and V inventions are usable apart from the group I polarization and cam means.

Also note that a claim such as claim 1 if found allowable would serve as evidence that the combination does not rely on specifics of the subcombinations for patentability.

Inventions II and (III, IV and V) are related as subcombinations disclosed as usable together in a single combination. The subcombinations are distinct from each other if they are shown to be separately usable. In the instant case, invention has separate utility such as the group II connector with insert is usable separately from the devices of the other groups since group II requires no back shell, mounting panel, or modular system. See MPEP § 806.05(d).

Each of groups IV and V are similarly usable apart from specifics of the other two subcombinations.

Upon making election, applicant should review all claims in the case and indicate the claims, they believe are directed to the elected invention if different than those listed above.

Because these inventions are distinct for the reasons given above and have acquired a separate status in the art as shown by their different classification, restriction for examination purposes as indicated is proper.

Applicant is advised that the reply to this requirement to be complete must include an election of the invention to be examined even though the requirement be traversed (37 CFR 1.143).

Any inquiry concerning this communication should be directed to N. Abrams at telephone number 308-1729.
